Course Details

Safeguarding Children & Young People in Sport

This workshop aims to raise awareness of Child Protection issues in sport and introduces participants to the Code of Ethics and Good Practice for Children's Sport. This workshop is important for all adults involved in children's sport, but is particularly recommended for Coaches, Leaders, Administrators and Officials. The workshop which has been adapted for online learning is now delivered in two parts.

Part 1: Mandatory pre-learning that consists of a 25 minute video which is required to be undertaken in advance of the online workshop.

Part 2: Online virtual workshop via Zoom.

Designated Safeguarding Officer

This workshop aims to support those undertaking the role of Designated Safeguarding Children's Officer in sports clubs including creating an awareness of key legislation and good practice, how to respond in a range of situations of concern and how to develop the standards of safeguarding within a club environment. Attendees must have attended 'Safeguarding Children and Young People in Sport' prior to attending this workshop and must be over 18 years of age.

This workshop will be delivered online in 2 x 1.5hr sessions. Both sessions need to be undertaken in order to complete the workshop.

Income generation, fundraising and sponsorship for sports clubs

This workshop delivered by Geoff Wilson will focus on how sports clubs can become financially sustainable by generating income from a variety of sources including sponsorship, fundraising and grants/foundations.

Geoff works with the likes of FIFA, UEFA, AFC, FIBA and other global sports organisations in a wide range of areas from strategic planning, marketing and communications, digital, fans engagement, public affairs and knowledge sharing/exchange programmes. Geoff is a part-time lecturer in marketing at Queen's University Belfast and is Chair of Netball Northern Ireland.
