There are new sounds, smells and you may not know what to expect.

Location of Venue:

Map source: Google

Based in the square in Keady, the TMAC centre is very accessible and has multiple car parking spaces at the front and the back of the building.

AUTISM FRIENDLY PRE VISIT GUIDE

Welcome:

When you come in to the main reception area you will be greeted by a member of staff, who will advise you where to go.

Lifts / Toilets

You will see signage for lifts and toilets when you come through the main entrance doors. There is a lift that can bring you up to the first floor. It is located on the right hand side of the main corridor.

The toilet block is located on the left of this corridor. This consists of an accessible toilet, 3 ladies toilets, 2 gents toilets and a shower room.

Noises and smells you might notice at venue:

You may experience various smells and noises throughout the building. These may include coffee, food, cleaning products, talking, music, fire alarm, children playing or singing.
